Welcome to 24th DigiCon6 ASIA

The world may be full of unbearable things, but I believe in precious moments, however small they may be. These are what provide us solace – small acts of nature, beloved scenery, a dear friend's smile, a picture in an old book, a line from a poem, a melody that lingers in the ears...

"Tangle," an Iranian short animation comes to mind. A woman who has lost her family and is forced to flee her home, runs away from gunfire and fighting. She runs and runs. Countless threads of memory entangle her, shroud her, and when she finally reaches the border – break. In just seven minutes, only a single character in a black-and-white world without dialogue, the film is stripped down to the bare essentials, and yet is full of grief, fear, despair and prayer.

Our lives are filled with news on TV, newspapers and the internet, but we are strangers to most of them. They are not happening where we are. But the reality is that they are happening now, somewhere on the earth. Works like "Tangle" bring us a closer to the truth of the world. Who knows what a little film can do. But they are not powerless.

"Welcome home!" "I'm back!" "Nice to meet you." "Thank you for coming!" "Wonderful to meet you." I dream of the day when I can meet you all with a big smile, as I announce the official launch of the 24th edition of DigiCon6 ASIA 2022.

We are eager to welcome many heart-stirring works from all corners of Asia.
