Taking submissions! Bring your short films to DigiCon6!

At DigiCon6 ASIA, we eagerly await your submissions of short films that you have given your all into.

The creator of the illustration on the front page is Tomoki Misato, who received an award at DigiCon6 and has mesmerized the world with "PUI PUI Molcar."

So far, many filmmakers like Misato have entrusted DigiCon6 with their important pieces of work.

This year we have reached a milestone with our 25th event, and we are thrilled to meet new talent.

Judges composed of prestigious film creators and producers who represent Asia, will carefully watch, and evaluate your films.

Films that you have submitted to other competitions are gladly welcomed as well.

Being able to meet new film creators is DigiCon6's utmost pleasure.
